OLD CROTON AQUEDUCT
INDIAN CREEK CULVERT

Date: 1837-38

Location: Reservoir and Quaker Bridge Roads, Ossining Vicinity (Crotonville), Westchester County, New York.

Engineer: John B. Jervis

Owner: Originally; New York City Water Board
Presently; Taticonic State Parkway Authority.

Significance: The Old Croton Aqueduct is an outstanding example of 19th century civil engineering and was New York City's first municipal water project. The culvert at Indian Creek is just one of several standard culvert designs used along the 41 mile route of the aqueduct.

Transmitted by: Daniel Clement, 1984. For further information regarding the Old Croton Aqueduct please refer to NY-107 and NY-109 through NY-120 (HAER).
